Mayor Tom Maddox presents 'key to the city' to Elba native Dr. Henry Terry during Black History Month concert

Elba Elementary School hosted the George Washington Carver High School Concert Choir on Tuesday morning, Feb. 28, for a Black History Month concert (pictured above). The choir is led by Elba native Dr. Henry Terry.

Dr. Terry graduated from Elba High School in 1982. He has been employed the past 33 years in the Montgomery, Alabama public school district. Dr. Terry believes it is imperative that all educators prepare to meet all students' learning needs as the U.S. demographics and the multitude of cultures continue to change.

During Tuesday's event, which was held at the Elba High School auditorium, Elba Mayor Tom Maddox presented a symbolic 'key to the city' to Dr. Terry (pictured right).

During the concert, Dr. Terry played piano while James McTier conducted the choir. Dr. Terry's concert choir is renowned across the state and country.

Elba City and Coffee County Schools receive funds from Southeast Gas 'Give Back to Schools' program

Southeast Gas recently announced its 2023 Give Back to Schools contribution of $137,000 to 20 public school systems in Alabama, and the school systems in Coffee County were among the recipients.

To date, local public schools received more than $1.7 million through the Give Back to Schools initiative and the more natural gas a school system uses, the more dollars that system receives. This program was established by Southeast Gas and its Board of Directors in 2010 and provides dollars to public schools based solely on their natural gas usage for the previous year.

Board members work alongside Superintendents in each school system to determine the best way for funds to be allocated.

"As a former educator, I understand the value of our school systems and the impact our local teachers, staff, and administrators make on students and the community," said Southeast Gas Board Chair and Andalusia City Councilman. Kenneth Mount. "Much of our funding this year is allocated to technology advancements and enhancements for our schools. Our goal with this program is to come alongside our schools as a partner and give leadership for each system the flexibility to use the funds where they are most needed."

Give Back to Schools is just one way Southeast Gas is committed to building stronger communities. Southeast Gas President and CEO Greg Henderson says the company's commitment to serve reaches well beyond these contributions, though.

"With a foundation of service, our Board and employees meet needs in ways I could never imagine. Sometimes that looks like physically spending time helping schools improve their athletic facilities," he said. "Other times it looks like volunteering side-by-side with students as they explore potential careers in the natural gas industry. And, then there are the days like these when we're making financial investments in our schools."

arships are awarded each year.

A TNA Impact Wrestling Event

"Rumble on the River" returning Friday night to Elba High School

Live action wrestling returns this Friday, March 3, to the Elba High School gymnasium with professional TNA Impact Wrestling delivering the entertainment.

The 2nd Annual Rumble on the River wrestling event will begin at 7:30 p.m. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Prior to the wrestling event, there will be an 'autograph party' Friday afternoon from 3-5:30 p.m. at Elba Food Giant.

"These are all contract wrestlers through the WWE," event organizer Al Gilmore said. "This is basically a minor league farm system for professional wrestlers. They are all 'under contract' wrestlers working their way up to 'prime time' or returning from an injury."

Once the wrestling action gets underway Friday night at the high school gym, the show will include a Lucha Libre match featuring Antonio Garza against Mysterio De Alabama. A special event match will feature WWE/TNA Impact superstar Johnny Swinger against The Mercenary, and there will be a special appearance by WWE superstar Doink the Clown, and the Giant Hillbilly.

The U.S. Junior Title Match will feature a favorite from last year, Action Mike Jackson, facing Brock Garvin.

The main event will be a 'King of the Ring' Battle Royale!

"Last year's event was phenomenal, but this year is going to be even bigger and better," Gilmore said.

"These guys mentioned are just a few of the awesome wrestlers set to come to Elba High School this year."

Gilmore said these TNA Impact Wrestling events are 100 percent family-friendly, legit wrestling events.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

When a man is wrapped up in himself, he makes a pretty small package. — John Ruskin

Was reading some catchy comments about marriage recently and one noted the advantage of having someone to blame for missing socks. Well, that one we can relate to. We have been living alone now for just over two years since Heddy's death and the socks continue to disappear and who can we blame — but ourself or the washing machine! We have even counted them — going into the washer and coming out, and have even number coming out but . . . two of that group will not have a mate.

Our book reading is going slow these days, as this Abe Lincoln history is so detailed that we 'crawl' down the pages, trying to absorb ALL the details. Alas, that is not only hard to do, but virtually impossible. Having always been a speed reader and knew what we had read at the end of the day, this is hard to accept. We read slower, try to focus on the material and still . . . well got another birthday coming up and will just blame it on 'old age'. However, reading a good book is enjoyable and it will be continued.

The U. S. Supreme Court is this week hearing the pros and cons on the legality of the feds forgiving up to $20,000 in federal college loans for most of those who have such debt. Those watching the proceedings are alarmed that the judges are apparently questioning how the Education Department has the authority to forgive those loans. If that means they will rule the offer illegal without Congressional approval, those who were upset over the recent abortion ruling will be joined by thousands of mad former students (and maybe parents) who were counting on getting that freebie from the government. Our opinion on that is thousands of former college students have repaid their loans and moved on with their life. Plus as we have written before, many of those loans were spent on trips to the beach during spring holidays . . . We saw them passing through town and heard them laughing about their 'loan money' buying the gas and/or the beer. That implies they could have gotten by with a much smaller federal loan and thus lower monthly payments.

The Elba High girls' basketball team was the talk of the town recently as the team made its way up the ladder toward the state championship. That all came to a halt Monday as the score came down to a tie moments before the end of the game but the lady Tigers lost at the final whistle. They can hold their head high, as there were dozens of teams around the state wishing they had reached the semi-finals!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Members of the Elba High School Class of 1972:

On behalf of the board officers and members of the Elba High School Alumni Association, I extend a heartfelt thank you to you all for your generous donation of $500 made recently to our association.

The Elba High School Alumni Association was formed to be an asset/resource for Elba City Schools. Each year, the association provides $3,000 in scholarship monies to graduating seniors [a $1,500 scholarship for a male graduate and a $1,500 scholarship for a female graduate]. To this date, over $21,000 has been provided in scholarship monies, and we plan to add to that total in May.

On top of that, the association's board works closely with the schools, and strives to assist with needs that may arise throughout each school year. We are only able to accomplish these things through support of alumni such as your class members. We rely on membership dues, an annual golf tournament fundraiser, and private donation, like yours, to allow us to help Elba City Schools.

As always...It's Great to be an Elba Tiger!!

Sincerely,

Linda Hodge, president

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder
Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Sister has gotten back on her low carb diet recently to help with her blood sugar levels, and she has convinced Cuzin Lou Lou to at least make an attempt at cutting some carbs from her diet as well.

Lou Lou will admit she actually feels better on the days she 'cuts the carbs' from her food intake, but there are still those other days when those pesky things are just too enticing to avoid!

Earlier this week, Papa was gone during lunchtime, so, Lou Lou 'fixed' a low-carb-friendly lunch for she and Sister. Lou Lou ate before Sister got home for lunch, and being bit on the hungry side, she slipped some crackers in with her meal. She got rid of the evidence before Sister got there, but to no avail...Sister 'guessed' that Lou Lou had eaten crackers with her meal.

Some habits are just hard to break...Lou Lou is just a work in progress.

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling.

What Cremation Terms are Important to Know
 -When a loved one dies, you're suddenly forced to make a lot of tough decisions about cremation, burial, and memorialization. One of the biggest challenges is mastering the terminology. Simply put, cremation entails a lot of "lingo" that you may be unfamiliar with.
 For example, what's a columbarium? The columbarium is a structure, typically found in a cemetery or church setting, with different compartments or niches in it for placing urns. These structures serve as mausoleums and provide a way for you to give your loved one's cremated remains a final resting place.
 Another term you might come across is cremains. It is simply a portmanteau of cremated remains, that is, the "ashes" produced in the cremation process.
 Disposition is the act of placing cremains in their final resting place - whether that's in a cemetery, a memorial garden, or elsewhere. Entombment specifically refers to burial in a mausoleum. Finally, interment refers to a burial of cremated remains in the ground or a mausoleum. This is not to be confused with inurnment, which refers to the placement of cremated remains in an urn.
 An urn is simply the container in which you place cremated remains. You might memorialize this urn in your home for a season, but most of the time the urn finds its final destination in a cemetery. One final term to know is niche, which refers to the place in a columbarium where you might place your loved one's urn.
 Knowing some of these terms can help you feel more confident as you seek to make the best decisions for your loved one, or even when pre-planning your cremation and funeral. Contact a local funeral provider for additional assistance and guidance.

Paul & Gabriel Jackson release book on Christian parenting

A midwest publisher has recently released a new book by a father/son team of authors entitled "Coaching by Dad: Discover your influence, raise Jesus followers, and build lasting legacy one quarter at a time."

Paul Jackson, pastor of Elba's Covenant Community Church, draws from decades of life experience in the role of a father and pastor, sharing practical insights and wisdom that dads can instantly apply. The book targets dads, young and old, who aim to forge a deeper connection with their children.

Accompanying each chapter are reflection questions spurring engagement from the reader.

The book is co-authored by Paul's son, Gabriel Jackson.

"Paul and Gabe offer wise counsel on how to help your kids thrive emotionally and spiritually," says Focus on the Family president Jim Daly.

Pat Williams, co-founder of the Orlando Magic, adds, "Honest and thoroughly biblical. I could not recommend this book more highly."

The book is a one-of-a-kind toolkit, designed to demonstrate the ups and

Receiving Mercy, Extending Mercy

When a drug deal went bad, Bob's brother was killed by a guy named Harvey, whom Bob and his brother had known well. Vowing revenge, Bob went on the hunt for Harvey but lost track of him. Then Bob himself got into trouble with the law and went to jail. Lo and behold, Harvey ended up in the same prison. Although by then Bob had come to Christ and let go of his vow of revenge, he still could not fully forgive. One day, in a common area for inmates, Harvey timidly asked Bob for mercy. Bob, now a forgiven man in Christ, was finally able to extend that mercy to his brother's killer.

Imagine our heavenly King's delight when Bob forgave his brother's penitent killer. These days, Bob and Harvey attend worship service together every week. Even in the most difficult of circumstances, through the power of the Holy Spirit we can find the ability to forgive our offenders – to extend the same mercy to them that God generously offered to us. – D.S.

For second journey of season on Alabama BASS Nation High School Trail Tiger Division

Zion Chapel Bass Team enjoys good day on Lake Eufaula

Although the water was rough, the wind was cold, and the rain was nonstop, these rigid conditions did not stop team Avery Padgett/Ethan Young of the Zion Chapel Bass Team and their trusty boat captain, Taylor Renfroe. In other words, February 11, 2023, on Lake Eufaula, was a tough day but rewarding day.

This was the second tournament of this season on the Alabama BASS Nation High School Trail Tiger Division for the Zion Chapel Team.

As Avery Padgett put it, "Eufaula was good to us again! While getting beat to death by waves and getting pelted by rain from blast off until weigh-in time, we managed to get five in the boat."

Team Padgett/Young weighed in 16.92 pounds and placed fifth out of 110 boats. Only 14 teams managed to catch their limit, and only 78 teams out of 110 weighed in. This scenario tells the story of a rough day on the water, but it also depicts the dedication of these young anglers.

In the big fish competition, Padgett/Young placed third with their largest fish weighing 5.53 pounds; the first-place fish weighed 6.03 pounds. Congrats to ZC anglers Ethan Young and Avery Padgett and their boat captain Taylor Renfroe with the five fish that vaulted the team to a fifth place finish Feb. 11th on Lake Eufaula.

G. W. Long for winning the big fish award.

Team Padgett/Young also won the Freedom Marine Center Contingency money ($1,000) for the seventh consecutive time. They give a big shoutout to Kenneth Chambers for affording them this opportunity.

The next stop for Team Padgett/Young was the BASSMASTER High School Open on Lay Lake, February 25, 2023. Over 300 teams from across the United States registered for this big event.

Ethan Young and Avery Padgett, center, accept their $1,000 Freedom Marine Center Contingency check. This was the seventh consecutive time for the team to win this award.

Our grandson Lawson has had to do some extra class work at home due to a couple of 'E Learning' days and while he did sit down and make sure he did what was expected, he wasn't able to complete his lessons because he forgot the password to get into one subject. Years back students used excuses like they lost their homework or the dog tore it up, but forgetting a password is one that everyone has to believe since we have all forgotten how to get into various sites on the computer because of those dreaded passwords that we forgot.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Lady Tigers punched their ticket to the State Basketball Tournament for the second time in four years last week and have made it known all across the state that girls' basketball is a winning program at Elba High. Back three years ago the team was filled with inside players, including two girls over six-feet tall, and played a power game to wear out its opponents, while this season the team is filled with young players that can run up and down the court for all four quarters, love to play defense and wear down their opponents making them play a full court game. Two very different teams with the same success proves that the program is solid and should be around for years to come. Before leaving the basketball court, I agree that A'Lyric Whitfield was an easy choice for region MVP and that Ana Caldwell was deserving of being on the all-tournament team, but a player who played as hard as anyone on the court and should have been named to the all-tournament team was Yada Caldwell, The Lady Tiger senior was a force inside in both wins, grabbed a ton of rebounds, scored some big baskets and hit some key free throws in crucial situations. I think all the Elba girls deserved special recognition for their play, but Yada was special.

 The high school baseball season is underway and its hasn't been the start the Elba Tigers had hoped for as they have lost their first three games and in the process have given up 50 runs. Elba has always been a perennial slow starter on the baseball field and there is a long way to go, but I know the coaches have to be scratching their heads and looking at the line-up card hunting for the right combination to turn things around. I have seen it before and know the slow start has been hard to watch, but I know the players and coaches and know they will work things out real soon and start hanging some wins on their side of the scoreboard sooner than many may believe. The Elba JV Tigers are also off to slow start, but like the varsity have enough talent to win their share of games and I'm sure in the weeks to come they will get to celebrate after a bunch of wins.

 It has been somewhat of a slow start around the area in both baseball and softball, but most of the teams did get on the field last week and gave us a preview of things to come. On the baseball field, New Brockton shook off a slow start to get two wins over Zion Chapel and appears ready for a solid season, while the Rebels are also a very good team and will be a team to watch in the 2A ranks. Kinston picked up its first win of the season and has way too much talent not to be a factor in the 1A race. Over on the softball field, Kinston picked up a big win over 5A Charles Henderson and appear just as good as ever, while Zion Chapel clobbered 3A Straughn and appears ready to take off, and there is no doubt New Brockton will overcome its slow start and be one of the top teams in 3A before long. Yep, it's going to be a fun spring to watch baseball and softball from our lawn chairs.

 In an effort to shorten football games, the NCAA is considering four rule changes that would take place next season. The proposed changes include (1) prohibiting consecutive time outs, (2) No longer extending the first or third quarter for an untimed down on a defensive penalty on the last play of the quarter, (3) to continue to run the clock after a first down except the final two minutes of the half, (4) run the clock after an incomplete pass after the ball is spotted for play. I really see no harm in any of the proposed rules, but the easiest way to speed up a game is to stop having so many commercials that turn one hour games on the clock to four hour games on the TV!

 In closing.... There is still no final word on the future of Bally Sports, the TV network that televises the Atlanta Braves baseball games, but the last thing I read was that it looks like Major League Baseball could step in and televise the games on the MLB Network, which is a pay network and will require all us Braves fans to anti-up a monthly check to watch the games. I guess if being a subscriber will give me access to all the games in both leagues I may very well join, but if not, just more reruns of Gunsmoke and old movies. Where is Ted Turner and his networks when you need them!

ELBA LADY TIGERS - 2023 CLASS 1A SOUTH REGION CHAMPIONS

Lady Tigers win South region

The Elba Lady Tigers hit on six of eight free throws in the final two minutes of the game to spark a 10-0 closing run as they rallied to defeat Red Level 55-50, to claim the championship of the Class 1A, South Region Basketball Tournament, in Montgomery.

Elba jumped out to an early 4-1 lead behind the scoring of Yada Caldwell and A'Lyric Whitfield and was still on top 8-6 with 3:01 left in the opening quarter after a Whitfield basket, but Red Level closed the stanza on a 4-1 run to carry a 10-9 lead into the second quarter. Red Level stretched its lead to 15-9 early in the quarter, but the Lady Tigers battled back and pulled even at 19-19 when Kendra Juarez scored from inside. A basket by Ana Caldwell gave Elba a 21-19 lead with seconds left. However, Red Level hit a long three-pointer just before the buzzer as it carried a 22-21 lead in at intermission.

Elba caught Red Level at 28-28 early in the third quarter on a layup by A'Lyric Whitfield and moved on top 31-28 with 1:59 left in the quarter as Whitfield continued to find her way to the basket. Red Level refused to go away; however, and hit another three-pointer at the buzzer to take a 36-34 lead with eight minutes remaining.

The two teams swapped baskets in the early minutes of the fourth quarter and

Elba pulled even at 45-45 with 4:49 left on a three-point play by Ny'Asia McCollough, only to see Red Level go on a 5-0 run to take a 50-45 lead with 4:11 left on the clock. The Lady Tiger defense never backed down in the closing minutes as it shut out Red Level for the final four minutes of the game, while Elba hit on six of eight free throws in the final two minutes and closed the game with a 10-0 rally to claim the region championship 50-45.

A'Lyric Whitfield scored 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead Elba, while Yada Caldwell added 10 points, Ny'Asia McCollough added 9 points, Ana Caldwell scored 6 points and pulled down 17 rebounds, Alayvia Stinson scored 3 points and Kendra Juarez added 2 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. Brantley ousted at South region by area foe Florala

The Brantley Bulldogs saw their road back to the 'Final Four' hit a dead-end Thursday afternoon with a hard fought 58-46 loss to the Florala Wildcats, in the championship game of the Class 1A South Region Basketball Tournament, in Montgomery. The Bulldogs had advanced to the region finals with a 45-38 semifinal win over McIntosh, but never found their range in the title clash as they hit only 15 of 56 shots from the floor, were 3 for 20 from behind the arc and hit 13 of 22 free throws.

Following is a recap of the two South Region games:

Brantley 45 McIntosh 38

The Brantley Bulldogs used a 21-3 second quarter rally to overcome a slow start and rolled to a 45-38 win over the McIntosh Demons, last Monday night in the semifinal round of the Class 1A South Region Tournament.

Brantley went almost six minutes without a point in the first quarter until Jon Kilcrease nailed a three-pointer with 2:04 left, but trailed only 5-3 after eight minutes of frustration and then began to play 'Bulldog basketball' in the second quarter as Jayden Parks scored six points to spark a 10-0 run that put the Bulldogs on top 13-5 with 3:19 left on the clock. McIntosh scored its only points of the stanza with 3:05 left on a three-pointer, while the Bulldogs never slowed down and led by Keldric Brown and a late four-point play on a three-pointer and a free throw by Kilcrease, carried a lopsided 24-8 lead in at intermission.

Brantley pushed its lead to 28-8 with 5:03 remaining in the third quarter on a Keldric Brown put back, and remained in command throughout the stanza as the Bulldogs carried a big 34-18 lead into the final stanza. Brown sparked an early 6-0 Brantley run to open the fourth quarter as the lead grew to 39-21, and the Bulldogs hit four free throws late to turn back a rally and claimed the 45-38 win.

Keldric Brown scored 18 points and pulled down 6 rebounds to lead Brantley, while Jayden Parks scored 13 points, Jon Kilcrease added 7 points, Daylan Davis scored 3 points, Robert Shine scored 2 points and pulled down 6 rebounds, and Janyles Tyson added 2 points.

Florala 58 Brantley 46

The Brantley Bulldogs fell behind in the first quarter and saw a gallant second half rally fall short in a disappointing 58-46 loss to the Florala Wildcats, in the region finals, Thursday afternoon.

Brantley jumped out to an early 4-2 lead behind the scoring of Jayden Parks, only to see Florala respond with a 14-4 run to close the first quarter as the Wildcats carried a 16-8 lead into quarter number two. The Bulldogs closed to within 16-12 early in the quarter on a basket by Janyles Tyson, but Florala again had an answer for the Bulldog rally and used a 12-2 run to stretch its lead to 28-14 with 1:27 left in the half, and went in at intermission with a 32-19 advantage.

The Bulldogs trailed 38-24 with 3:34 remaining in the third quarter, but came to life behind the play of Keldric Brown and Daylan Davis and closed the stanza with a 6-0 run to head into the final stanza trailing only 38-30. Brantley was within 40-34 with 6:41 remaining after a basket by Brown. However, Florala quickly extended its lead back out to ten points at 44-34 and the closest the Bulldogs could get the remainder of the stanza was eight points, as the Wildcats never lost control and handed Brantley the 58-46 loss.

Jayden Parks scored 17 points and Keldric Brown added 16 points and 9 rebounds to lead Brantley, while Robert Shine scored 4 points, Jon Kilcrease and Daylan Davis added 3 points, apiece, Janyles Tyson added 2 points and Kendrick Welch scored 1 point.

Elba eliminates Leroy in region opener 52-50

The Elba Lady Tigers had to fight for all thirty-two minutes to claim an exciting 52-50 win over the Leroy Lady Bears, last Monday night in the Class 1A South Region semifinals, in a game that was marred by 66 turnovers, 52 free throws and 42 fouls.

Elba jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on a put back by Kendra Juarez, but never found its stride on offense and trailed 9-6 after one quarter of play. Tajah Purvis sparked a 6-0 run early in the second quarter to help the Lady Tigers take a 12-9 lead, and when Juarez scored from inside with 1:16 left in the half the lead was up to 22-17. Leroy pulled within three points with less than a minute left on the clock. However, Elba's Tajah Purvis scored three points in the closing 34 seconds as the Lady Tigers carried a 25-19 advantage into intermission.

Elba extended its lead to 26-19 early in the third quarter on a Purvis free throw, and appeared to take command when a Yada Caldwell put back sparked a 6-0 run that pushed the Lady Tigers lead to 34-24 with 4:52 remaining in the stanza. Leroy answered the run with a 9-0 rally to cut the Elba lead to 34-33, but Elba regained command and when A'Lyric Whitfield scored with 15 seconds left on the clock the Lady Tigers were back in charge with a 40-33 lead.

Elba went almost four minutes without scoring in the fourth quarter, and Leroy took advantage of the scoring drought to take a 42-40 lead with less than five minutes left in the game. A'Lyric Whitfield and Ana Caldwell combined for six points midway through the stanza to put the Lady Tigers back on top 46-42 with 2:45 remaining, but Leroy refused to go away and with only 55 seconds left on the clock pulled even at 48-48. A'Lyric Whitfield hit her only three-pointer of the game with 24 seconds left to give Elba a 51-48 lead, and the Lady Tigers held on to survive and move on with the 52-50 win.

Elba, which scored 25 points off turnovers, was led by A'Lyric Whitfield with 18 points, while Tajah Purvis and Ana Caldwell both scored 8 points, Kendra Juarez scored 6 points and grabbed 10 rebounds, Yada Caldwell scored 4 points pulled down 9 rebounds, and Brooke Tinsley, Ayrika Caldwell, Alayvia Stinson and Ny'Asia McCollough all scored 2 points. Chauncey Dixon scored 25 points and pulled down 25 points to lead Leroy.
